

Living outside of the main residence is illegal

Living in a camper or any type of a shelter outside of the main residence structure shall be illegal. Exceptions are as follows:

- a) There is an approved building permit for work being done on the main residence.
- b) The structure is a camper that is located on a driveway and the duration is for 3 days or less.
- c) The town board has issued a permit indicating the number of days allowed.